

NASP Northwest Association of Special Programs

NASP 2009 CONFERENCE

Dec. 6-9, 2009

Seattle Renaissance — Seattle, WA

TRiO Works!

Call for Proposals

This year's conference theme is TRiO Works! We all know the benefits of TRiO and the positive effects it has on students, families, schools, and communities. It's time for us to show everyone that TRiO works! In line with the NASP mission to promote the development, improvement, and extension of education to non-traditional individuals and provide training for professional personnel to enhance the quality of services delivered to non-traditional students, conference proposals are sought on innovative educational practices and tools that address the academic success of low income and first generation populations.

Presentations proposed should be in one or more of the three thematic areas:

- 1) Project Administration & Support (administration, budget management, database management, reporting systems, etc.)
- 2) Direct Services (advising, tutoring, mentoring, learning communities, etc.)
- 3) Resources (community agencies/organizations, financial aid/scholarships, fundraising, etc.) Length of presentation should be no longer than 75 minutes.

Deadlines: Proposals should be submitted no later than October 6, 2009. Notification of acceptance will be sent no later than October 16, 2009. Due to publication deadlines, names of additional and/or replacement presenters will not be added to accepted proposals.
